FULL STORY

TRANSFER BY SPEEDBOATS

On arrival into Lisbon, we take the scenic coastal road to the Park of Nation Dock. We waste no time, hopping on board speedboats for a thrilling ride into central Lisbon. We disembark at Santo Amaro Dock, on the doorstep of Doca Piexe to enjoy a delicious welcome lunch. Situated on the harbour, the restaurant serves the local catch of the day on its sunny terrace. Then it's a short stroll to the Tivoli Avenida Liberdade, our home for the next three nights. The Tivoli Avenida Liberdade has 285 bedrooms, all designed with elegant furnishings and spacious layouts. But it's the terrific rooftop bar overlooking Lisbon and the Arrabida mountains behind it that really wears the hotel's crown. For our first evening in Lisbon, we dress to impress at trendy LX Factory. Dinner is taken at Taberna 1300, where Mediterranean cuisine is served amongst a modern and quirky setting with tables overlooking the open kitchen. After dinner, it's back to the hotel for expertly mixed nightcaps!

FOOD, GLORIOUS FOOD

For our first full day in Lisbon, we're met at the hotel lobby by a row of glistening tuk-tuks ready to transport us on a gastronomic tour of the city. Knowledgeable drivers weave us past famous monuments and brilliant viewing spots alongside foodie hotspots – where sampling delicious Portuguese delicacies including locally produced cheese, port, meat and of course the famous Pastel de nata. The tuk-tuk tour finishes at Museu de Cerveja, a Portuguese beer museum located on Lisbon's main square. We enjoy a short tour of the museum, washed down by chilled craft beers and a generous lunch. Then there's time at leisure in the centre of Lisbon before heading back to the hotel by coach, or for those that would prefer a casual stroll, the hotel is only a 20-minute walk away.

Guests then meet for a short transfer to the impressive Kais Restaurant, a former warehouse located on the banks of the Tagus river, replete with the chicest atmosphere. With a large central bar and abundant with candles, it's time to enjoy local cuisine with superb wine and excellent service – Kais does not disappoint. After dinner, guests can continue the party at Kais, which is also home to Skone's nightclub and stays open until the early hours of the morning.

A PAELLA FEAST AWAITS

After breakfast, we head out for a day of exploration. We begin by heading out of Lisbon centre, taking in the beautiful scenery along the way, up to the picturesque town of Sintra – home to beautiful palaces and narrow cobbled streets lined with an abundance of boutique shops. We pause for mid-morning coffee and a local pastry before climbing into waiting jeeps ready to take us high up into the Sintra mountains. Here we get into game mode, setting code cracking tasks that direct drivers deep into the forests to eventually emerge at Cape Roca, the most Western part of mainland Europe. Cape Roca was once thought to be the edge of the world and boasts the most superb views over the Atlantic Ocean. Here we serve Ginja, a Portuguese liqueur, served in a chocolate shot glass whilst embracing the magnificent scenery. Then its onward for lunch on the coast. Furnos do Guincho, a beautiful seaside restaurant that leans over the Atlantic Ocean is our destination, serving exceptional seafood and paella and a suitably relaxed atmosphere.

Having feasted we venture back towards Lisbon with a stop off at Cascais along the way. The town of Cascais is best known for its sandy beaches, vibrant marina and delicious ice cream. Here we enjoy time at leisure for a stroll down the promenade before heading back to the hotel where an afternoon by the pool awaits. We have the option of a fabulous farewell dinner just a short transfer away from the hotel in a private dining room of 1 Michelin star restaurant, Eleven. Surrounded by lavish gardens and overlooking the city of Lisbon, the restaurant offers outstanding Mediterranean gourmet cuisine, exquisite wine and fantastic service. A great way to spend a final night in the city.

LUNCH WITH A VIEW

Guests can enjoy their last morning in Lisbon at leisure before checking out of the hotel and heading out to board private trams. With our local guide at the helm we ride through the narrow streets, sipping on port and devouring a custard tart along the way. The short tour finishes at Faz Figura, a historical restaurant with panoramic views over the city, where we enjoy national cuisine and Portuguese wines. A perfect farewell lunch to see us off to the airport.

This is an example of an itinerary for 50 people (25 rooms). All our itineraries are completely bespoke and subject to suitability and availability.
