FULL STORY

VIEWS OVER THE SANDY BEACH

We arrive into Mykonos early afternoon and whisked by private coach transfer to the Myconian Collection Imperial Hotel, boasting incredible views over the sandy beach and clear blue sea. The luxury hotel is located immediately above the island's longest fine sand beach and has two blissful swimming pools. We're welcomed by a light lunch and drinks followed by a private check in and some time at leisure. Come evening we transfer to dinner in style, with a pick-up from the hotel beach by speedboat for a thrilling 15-minute cruise along the coast to Nammos, one of Mykonos most famous beach clubs. We disembark to trays of champagne, before a drinks' reception on the beach settles us in perfectly. Nammos serves fantastically presented and delicious food with a buzzy atmosphere to boot. Here we party late into the night as the drinks flow and a DJ keeps us moving.

A PRIVATE SEA TO FORK LUNCH

After breakfast at leisure, we take a short stroll down to Elia Beach, just below the hotel, where two traditional fishing boats are docked. These boats can hold up to 15 people per boat and are a great way to sail around some of the Mykonos coastline. Continuously flowing drinks and snacks are served onboard with plenty of scheduled stops for swimming in the irresistible ocean. A pause at the historic Delos Island can be arranged, where guests can see the amazing archaeological site which holds the remains of a uninhabited island of Rhenia. Our boats then dock on the private island's sandy beach where chef cooks freshly caught seafood for our picnic-style BBQ lunch. After lunch, boats return to the hotel beach for an afternoon by the pool and beach bar.

As dusk falls, we transfer into Mykonos Old Town where guests can take a stroll around the picturesque streets with a local guide – passing iconic Mykonos windmills – before arriving at Little Venice for cocktails. A semi-private area awaits in Caprice Bar, boasting unrivaled views over the sea. Here we sip chilled pre-dinner drinks and watch a magical sun set. After which, it's a short stroll to dinner at Kousaros in the heart of Mykonos Old Town, found down the cobbly, floral streets, and serving some of the best fish and seafood around. We're surrounded here by an abundance of local late-night bars – post dinner drink anyone?

FANTASTIC FOOD ELECTRIC ATMOSPHERE

We regroup after breakfast and jump into self-drive 4x4 jeeps for a tour around the beautiful island of Mykonos. There are stops aplenty – from the Armenistis Lighthouse, local churches to a tasting stop in the quaint village Ano Mera to try some local delicacies. The jeep tour finishes at Fokos Restaurant, a remote tavern set on a hidden beach. Fokos serves amazing local Greek cuisine and ice-cold beers. After which, we spend some time on the near deserted beach before taking a leisurely coach ride back to the hotel.

of delicious food. The food is fantastic, and the atmosphere is electric – it's a great way to end the trip! Fancy carrying on late into the night? There's room for a dance on the beach before we head back, heart's full, to the hotel for sleep.

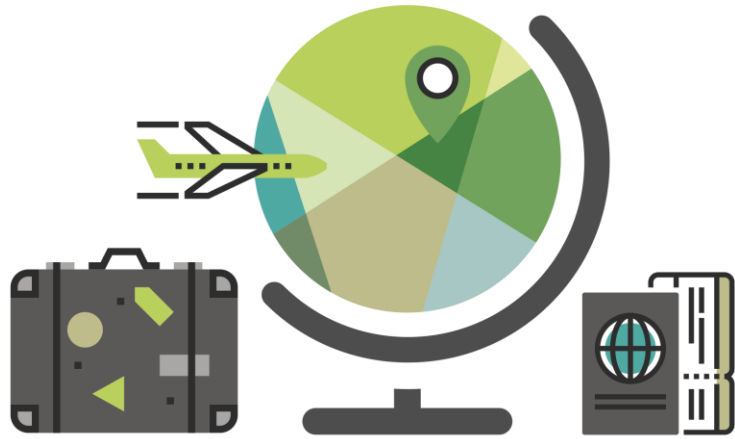

This is an example of an itinerary for 20 people. All our itineraries are completely bespoke and subject to suitability and availability.
