FULL STORY

A G&T OVERLOOKING THE LAGOON

With a long weekend in Monte Carlo ahead of us, it feels only right to arrive in style! With 4 helicopters waiting, we're whisked off to take in the beautiful panoramic views of Nice and then on to Monaco. On arrival at the Monte Carlo Bay Hotel, our home for the next three nights, we're welcomed with a G&T overlooking the beautiful lagoon pool before enjoying a casual lunch on the restaurant terrace with views out to sea. With keys in hand it's time to change into shorts and enjoy some time at leisure. Our evening starts in the fabulous hotel Blue Gin Bar with a cocktail on the balcony, before a short stroll to dinner at the popular Avenue 31 for wonderful Italian food and impeccable service.

BEAUTIFUL VINTAGE CARS LINED UP

After a delicious buffet breakfast, and eggs made to order, we start the day greeted by 7 beautiful vintage cars lined up at the front of the hotel. We take a short briefing, and a quick lesson on how to drive these stunning classic cars and then we're off. The first part of our journey takes us around parts of Monte Carlo's one and only Grand Prix track before passing through the city's famous tunnel under the Fairmont to listen to the roars of their engine. In convoy we head up to Eze for coffee and pastries before continuing on to St Paul de Vence for lunch.

With breathtaking views of the traditional town of St Paul de Vence, we enjoy a fabulous lunch and drinks on the terrace at the 1 Michelin star, Alain Llorca Restaurant. Fabulous food and fine wines were enjoyed before heading back to the hotel by coach.

Late afternoon is spent relaxing by the pool, before dinner at the famous Café de Paris. With tables set on the terrace, we enjoy jovial service, taking in the wonderful atmosphere over a delicious meal. With bellies full we head to the famous Casino and try our hands at Blackjack. Next stop? Jimmy's Nightclub of course!

CRUISE ALONG THE COTE D'AZUR

A welcome lie in follows a late night! Then feeling refreshed it's off Monaco Harbour where speedboats await. With the open bar already in full flow we kick back and cruise in style along the Cote D'Azur. Destination? Villefranche, a restaurant boasting prime location on the harbour front. Here we sample its famous bouillabaisse at the family owned, Le Mere Germaine. After a tasty lunch and a stroll around the picturesque Medieval village it's back to the hotel. For our farewell dinner it's a short stroll down the promenade to trendy Twiga, where we take food al fresco and family style meal on the terrace, listening to the sounds of the resident DJ. Following dinner, the volume is dialed up and we move inside to enjoy the electric atmosphere until the early hours of the morning.

GLASS OF CHAMPAGNE ON THE TERRACE

After a morning at leisure, it's time to check out before a fabulous champagne brunch on the terrace of Las Brisas at the Monte Carlo Bay Hotel, before bidding farewell to Monaco and heading back to the UK.

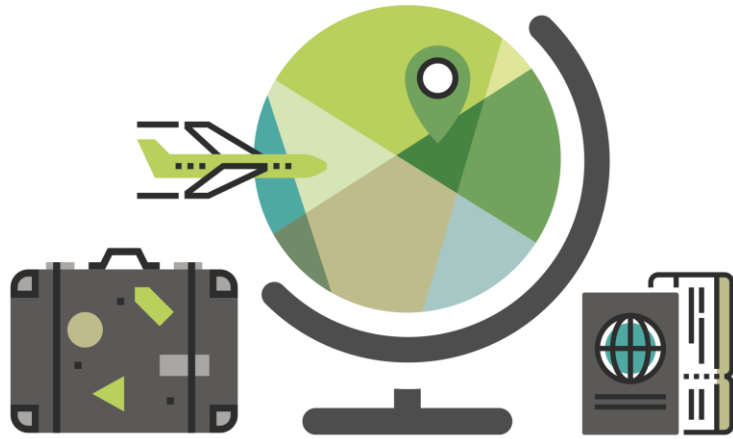

This is an example of an itinerary for 14 people. All our itineraries are completely bespoke and subject to suitability and availability.
